APPENDIX A: INTERVIEW RECORD

Interview With Bank Owner

Interview Date 09 October 2026

NB: Questions were reconstructed from interviewee's recorded answers

Customer registration

1. What information must the bank capture when registering an individual customer, and should the system check that it is valid?
    - Information captured for individual customers is their First name, Last name and physical address and they must also posses an identity document which the system will use to check for validity
2. Who is eligible to become a customer?
    - Anyone over the age of 18 and possesses any form of valid identity document is eligible
3. Does the bank verify a company's details with any outside body before accepting it?
    - Yes, company details which are provided by a company are verified at CIPA and must be valid before being accepted.
4. Should customers be able to update their details after registering, and from where?
    - Yes, customers are allowed the privilege of updating their details after registering either at any near branch or from their mobile devices that has access to internet.

Accounts

5. How many accounts of each type can one customer hold?
    - A customer can only hold one of each type of account e.g. one profile can have only one investment account, one savings account and one cheque account.

6. Is there a minimum amount needed to open any of the account types?
    - Yes, on the investment account an initial deposit of P500.00 is needed to open the account

7. What must a customer show before a Cheque account can be opened?

- A customer must provide valid identity documents and of proof of employment, employer name and employer address in order for them to be able to open an account.

8. Does the bank charge fees on any account, and if so, how are they worked out?

- Yes, there are withdrawal charges on the cheque account being 1 pula per 100 pula withdrawn and also when depositing being 2 pula per 100 pula of the money being deposited.

Transactions

9. How should a customer be able to put money into their accounts?

- A customer can put money into their accounts by depositing at any branch or atm.

10. Should customers be able to move money to their other accounts?

- Yes, Customers should be able to move money across their different types of accounts

11. How much transaction history should the system keep, and from when?

- All of it ,the system should keep all transaction history from the day an account is opened.

Interest and currency

12. When and how should interest be calculated and paid?

- Interest should be calculated automatically by the system every month on the 1st of every month and paid to the account

13. Should the system handle more than one currency?

- No, the system only handles one currency

Security

14. Who should be allowed to access accounts?

    - A customer that possesses the right login info and bank tellers with special permission from a customer via login details

15. What measures should protect the bank and its customers' information?

    - Only authorised people can access accounts, using authenticators, use of user logs and implementation of NDA's and policies

Withdrawals

16. Which accounts allow withdrawals from them?

    - All types of accounts except savings should allow withdrawals

FUNCTIONAL REQUIREMNTS

1) The system shall register an individual customer who is over 18 using their first name, last name, address and valid id
   SOURCE:Q1, Q2

2) The system shall register a company customer only after its documents are its registry documents are verified at CIPA
   SOURCE: Q3

3) The system will allow customers to update their details at any near branch or on a mobile device
   SOURCE: Q4

4) The system will need a login before anyone can access an account
   SOURCE: Q14

5) The system shall allow a customer to only open one cheque account, one investment account and one savings account.
   SOURCE: Brief, Q5

6) An investment account can only be opened through an initial deposit of P500.00 or more.
   SOURCE: Q6

7) To open a cheque account a valid ID, proof of employment and the employer's name and address is needed.
   SOURCE: Q7

8) The system will allow deposits into any type of account at a branch or ATM.
   SOURCE: Q9

9) The system shall allow withdrawals from any type of account except a savings account.
   Source: Q16, Brief

10) The system will charge cheque accounts P1.00 per P100.00 withdrawn and P2.00 per P100.00 deposited into cheque accounts.
    SOURCE: Q8

11) Transaction history of any type of account will be kept by the system from the day the account is opened.
    SOURCE: Q11

12) On the 1st of each month the system shall automatically pay 0.05% for savings and 5% for investment accounts.
    SOURCE: Q12, Brief

NON-FUNCTIONAL REQUIREMENTS

SECURITY: Only users that are authorized and authenticated can access accounts, bank policies and NDA's help protect customer information.
SOURCE: Q14, Q15

AVAILABILITY: The system can be accessed at branches and remotely using mobile devices that have access to internet.
SOURCE: Q4, Q9

DATA INTEGRITY: Transaction history is kept in full and cannot be changed, deleted or lost.

SOURCE: Q11

ACCURACY: Interest and fees are calculated by the system automatically.

SOURCE: Q8, Q12